3.3 Electronic Delivery. All Reader Software and Documentation shall be delivered by electronic means.

3.4 License Restrictions. You shall not (and shall not allow any third party to): (a) decompile, disassemble or reverse engineer the Reader Software or Third Party Code or attempt to reconstruct or discover any source code, underlying ideas, algorithms, file formats or programming interfaces of the Reader Software or Third Party Code by any means whatsoever (except and only to the extent that applicable law prohibits or restricts reverse engineering restrictions, or as permitted by an applicable Open Source Software license); (b) distribute, sell, sublicense, rent, lease or otherwise transfer the Reader Software or Third Party Code (or any portion thereof) for time sharing, hosting, service provider or like purposes; (c) remove any product identification, proprietary, copyright trademark, service mark, or other notices contained in the Reader Software or Third Party Code; (d) modify any part of the Reader Software or Third Party Code, create a derivative work of any part of the Reader Software or Third Party Code, or incorporate the Reader Software or Third Party Code into or with other software, except to the extent expressly authorized in writing by Tableau or as permitted by an applicable Open Source Software license; (e) publicly disseminate performance information or analysis (including, without limitation, benchmarks) from any source relating to the Reader Software; (f) utilize any equipment, device, software, or other means designed to circumvent or remove any form of Product Key or copy protection used by Tableau in connection with the Reader Software, or use the Reader Software together with any authorization code, Product Key, serial number, or other copy protection device not supplied by Tableau; (g) use the Reader Software to develop a product which is competitive with any Tableau product offerings; (h) use unauthorized Product Keys or keycode(s) or distribute or publish keycode(s) except as may be expressly permitted by Tableau in writing; or (i) use the Reader Software to open a Tableau Packaged Workbook ("txwb file") created using the Tableau Desktop, Tableau Server Software or Tableau Online and not individually saved therein, but rather saved or generated in an automated fashion.

You acknowledge that you are obtaining only a limited license right to the Reader Software, Third Party Code and that irrespective of any use of the words "purchase," "sale" or like terms hereunder no ownership rights are being conveyed to you under this Agreement or otherwise.

5. Payment. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, you are not obligated to pay any fees to Tableau for the license to Tableau Reader granted to you under this Agreement.

6. Term of Agreement.

8.1 Support Services. Tableau will not provide any support services for the Reader Software under this Agreement.

8.2 Upgrades. You may be entitled to New Versions of the Reader Software when and if made commercially available by Tableau and at Tableau’s sole direction. If Tableau labels the New Version as an upgrade or update to Reader Software previously licensed to you (“Previous Version”), you must replace the Previous Version (including all installed copies) with the New Version. Your rights with respect to the New Version shall, unless otherwise provided in the accompanying Documentation or this Agreement, be the same as those with Previous Version. Unless separately agreed to in writing by Tableau, in no event shall you use the New Version copy and Previous Version copy at the same time. You are only granted a single user license for the Reader Software and that license automatically transfers to the New Version once installed. Under no circumstances shall you transfer the Previous Version to any other person without also transferring the New Version. Tableau reserves the right to require you to destroy or return the Previous Version to Tableau and to require you to provide proof that you have complied with these terms.

11. Export Compliance. You acknowledge that the Reader Software is subject to United States export control and economic sanctions laws, regulations and requirements and to import laws, regulations and requirements of certain foreign governments.
